Privacy Notice

This notice explains how we may collect and use information about you collected through our site. For the purposes of the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679 Rigtrain (UK) Limited or one of its group companies is the data controller in respect of any personal data. Various forms on our site may invite you to submit your contact details and other information about you or your organisation, or to send us emails (which will of course identify you). In each case the purpose for which you are submitting your details will be made clear, for example to receive particular bulletins or be sent information on events. We may also send you announcements from time to time. From time to time we may use third parties to process or administer the data on our behalf, for example to send out invitations to events but such third parties are not allowed to use the data for their own purposes. We do monitor visits to our site so that we can improve our service and make the site easier to navigate but the information we use to do so does not identify you as an individual.

If you have any queries about this Policy or the data we hold about you, or if you wish to update any information we hold about you, please email IT@rigtrain.com.
